If you Never Try
By Bruce B. Wilmer

If you never try,
 You'll never have to face defeat.
If you never run a race,
 You'll never lose a heat.
If you never stretch your talents,
 You won't risk a tear.
If you never take a chance,
 The odds you'll never fear.
But if you have a lifelong wish
 And you don't venture out,
You'll never overcome
 Uncertainty and doubt.
And if you have a goal to reach
 And time is passing by,
You will never know fulfillment
 If you never try.
